

COOKIES POLICY

What are cookies and what are they for?

"Cookies" are small software labels that are stored on the computer through the browser, retaining only information related to preferences, not including personal data. Algarjet Lda. May use "cookies" to determine the usefulness, interest and number of uses of its websites, allowing a faster navigation, eliminating the need to repeatedly enter the same information. The use of cookies is a normal practice among Internet websites, and most Internet browsers allow a User to accept, decline or delete cookies by selecting the appropriate settings.

For what purposes do we use cookies and what types do we use?

Essential Cookies - Some cookies are essential to access secure areas of the website. They allow browsing the website and the use of your applications, such as accessing secure areas of the site through login. Without these cookies, services that require it can not be provided.

Analytical Cookies - We use these cookies to analyze how users use the site and monitor its performance. This allows us to provide a better user experience by customizing our offer. They can also identify and correct any problems that arise. These cookies allow for example, knowing which pages are most popular, which method of linking between pages is most effective, or determining why some pages are receiving error messages. Based on your use of the site, we may also use these cookies to highlight articles or services on the site that we think are of interest to Users. These cookies are used only for the purposes of statistical creation and analysis, without ever collecting personal information.

For the purpose of statistical analysis of the use of the website, Algarjet Lda. Uses Google Analytics, Google analysis tool or another similar tool that allows understanding the users' involvement and use of the website and its features. To learn more about Google privacy policies and how you can manage what information Google can access, visit <https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/>.

Feature Cookies - We use feature cookies that allow you to remember your preferences regarding your use of the site, saving them so that you do not need to re-configure the website with your preferences each time you visit it again.

The cookies used may be of the type:

Permanent Cookies - They are stored at the browser level on the user's access devices (pc, mobile and tablet) and are used whenever the user visits the website again. They are generally used to direct navigation according to User preferences.

Session Cookies - These are temporary, remain in the cookies of the user's web browser until this leaves the website. The information obtained allows you to identify problems and provide a better browsing experience.

How can the User manage cookies?

All browsers allow the User to accept, reject or delete cookies, in particular by selecting the appropriate settings in their browser. The User can configure cookies in the "options" or "preferences" menu of his browser.

Please note, however, that disabling cookies may prevent certain web services from functioning properly, affecting, in part or in full, navigation on the website.

Use of cookies in the opening of newsletters

Our newsletters can, for statistical purposes, contain cookies that allow us to identify if they are opened and which clicks on links within the newsletter. As stated in the privacy policies of Algarjet Lda., The User may, at any time, request the removal of his personal data or exclusion from the mailing list.
